Literally, A Ton of Testicles to Rock the Comstock 28th annual Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry and St. Patrick's Day Parade bring tasty testes March 16, 2019 to Virginia City, Nevada

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev. (Feb. 13, 2019) – A ton of steer testicles, literally, are headed up to the Comstock for the 28th annual Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry and St. Patrick's Day Parade, set for March 16, 2019 in historic Virginia City, Nevada from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Each year, daring cooks from around the region cook, fry, grill, smoke or otherwise serve up tasty testicle concoctions at this fan-favorite event, an ode to the mining town's history.

Known by many as the “testicle festival,” it is northern Nevada’s headquarters for the largest St. Patrick’s Day party in the region. The day includes the Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry, Ball Breaker Saloon Crawl, a St. Patrick’s Day Parade, costume contests and an outlandish St. Patrick’s Day atmosphere only found in Virginia City.

Tastings begin at 10 a.m. with cooks competing for the title of “Best Rocky Mountain Oyster Cook in the West,” along with cash prizes. At noon, the St. Patrick’s Day Parade marches down C Street where green and outlandish reigns supreme. The Ball Breaker Saloon Crawl offers revelers the chance to sample St. Patrick's Day-themed drinks from Virginia City's historic saloons and restaurants. Tasting packages and crawl cups are available in advance online.

- Skeptical About a Testicle: $ $7 for three tastings
- Flight of Ten: $15 for 10 tastings
- Balls & Beer for Four: $95 for 40 tastings and four Ball Breaker Saloon cups
- Ball Breaker Saloon Crawl: $20 for a cup
- Leprechaun Cup: $8 for a designated driver cup for free non-alcoholic beverages along the crawl
- VIB'er (Very Important Baller): $50 for 5 "fast passes" to skip the lines at your favorite booths and one tasting to all remaining booths, plus two Coors Lights at the event bar

The Rocky Mountain Oyster Fry is sponsored by Mustang Ranch Lounge, Coors Light – New West Distributing, Bucket of Blood Saloon and Cemetery Gin.
