Celebrate Your Valentine with a Virginia City Getaway

The Devil Made Me Do It includes overnight packages, a tasting tour and more

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev. (Jan. 18, 2021) – Virginia City is offering lovers a chance to celebrate a special Valentine’s Day getaway without going too far from home. The Devil Made Me Do It takes place Saturday, Feb. 13 in Virginia City, Nevada, and includes options for couples or small groups of friends to enjoy a historically quaint Valentine’s weekend in the mountain mining town. Following current state guidelines, options include a sampling tour at various participating Virginia City locations or a choice of all-inclusive overnight romance packages with a room, dining credit, sweet treats and wine or a gift basket. Participation is capped for the sampling tour and there are only 30 overnight packages available.

Sampling Tour

The Devil Made Me Do It returns in 2021 in a modified format to accommodate COVID-19 safety guidelines. Stroll through Virginia City’s historic locations and sip on signature, themed drinks or sweet treats while breathing in the fresh mountain air at 6,200 feet. Designated drivers can sign up to be Cupid and receive free non-alcoholic beverages.

Tickets are $20 in advance or $8 for Cupid. Check in starts at 11 a.m. and the tour runs from 12 – 5 p.m. To ensure safety guidelines are followed, start locations are staggered, registration is capped and all tickets must be purchased in advance. No day of ticket sales. Must be 21 and show valid identification at check in.

Overnight Packages

For the romantics at heart, two packages are offered and include a hotel stay at a choice of participating Virginia City hotels, wine or a gift basket, dining credit to a Virginia City restaurant and tickets to a sampling tour of themed cocktails and sweet treats at participating Virginia City locations.
