

Virginia City Social Media House Rules

Welcome to the Virginia City social media pages where you will find recent photos and videos, upcoming events and information distributed by the Virginia City Tourism Commission.

We welcome and encourage everyone to interact with us across our social media channels by leaving comments, asking questions and interacting with one another. We aim to keep our platforms a pleasant experience and ensure our communities are respectful, positive and supportive. While these are open platforms, we ask that our fans and followers follow the guidelines below. We may remove comments that:

- Defame, abuse, harass, stalk, threaten or otherwise violate the legal rights of others
- Are racist, sexist, homophobic, sexually explicit, abusive or otherwise objectionable
- Are false or misleading in any manner
- Suggest or encourage illegal activity
- Contain swear words or language likely to offend
- Contain solicitations or advertisements, including promotion or endorsement of any financial, commercial or non-governmental agency
- Repeatedly post the same message, 'spam'
- Contain external links except for those linking to the official Virginia City website
- Present a conflict of interest
- Are not in compliance with applicable social media platform terms and conditions, including but not limited to Facebook Terms and Policies, Twitter Terms of Service, Instagram Terms of Use and TikTok Terms of Service

By tagging or sharing images and video with us, the user is granting the Virginia City Tourism Commission the right to use this material and Virginia City assumes no responsibility for an infringement of rights by the user or lack of consent received by the user. By uploading User Content or participating in any Virginia City social media marketing campaign, you acknowledge and agree that you are at least 18 years of age. Virginia City reserves the right to block any User who violates the Virginia City Social Media House Rules. You participate at your own risk, taking responsibility for your comments and information provided.

If you have questions or wish to speak with someone regarding this page, please email visitorinfo@storeycounty.org.